

FEATHERWEIGHT BLOCKBUSTER

In three weeks, EFC 121 will deliver one of the most electrifying featherweight title fights in African MMA history.

Interim champion Roedie Roets - a powerhouse wrestler with just one career loss and a résumé that includes a stint in The UFC's Ultimate Fighter house - steps into the hex against Zambia's undefeated rising star, Ken Sekeletu.

A relentless and aggressive all-rounder, Sekeletu brings his freestyle attack to challenge Roets' dominant grappling.

With nearly identical physical stats and a razor-thin margin on paper, this is a battle of styles, willpower, and elite skill.

Meanwhile, reigning featherweight king Igeu Kabesa remains on the sidelines, recovering after an incredibly active 2024 that saw him move up to lightweight.

While he takes time to rest and reset, his longtime friend and teammate Roets has taken charge of the division.
